The Special Programs & Scholarship Application allows entering freshmen to apply for consideration for scholarships and admission to special programs.

The first page you come to will allow you to choose which applications you would like to submit. You may select more than one option. You may also select additional options at a later date.

Once you make your selection click the continue button at the bottom of the page.

All applications require the student to complete the general application information. This includes resume, personal statement, recommenders (if required) and essay. At the end of the essay, students will check a box to submit all general application information.

Once the general application information is submitted, students will then move on to complete the applications selected on the first page. Please remember each application must be submitted individually. For instance, at the end of the scholarship application you must click the submit button and at the end of the Honors College application you must click the submit button.

Please be aware students can update the general application information and the scholarship application until March 1st. Students cannot update applications to the special programs once they are submitted.

The University of Mississippi offers the following:

☒ Freshman Scholarships - The University awards numerous scholarships (one-year or renewable) based on academic achievements, special talents and/or accomplishments, and financial need. By completing this application, you will be considered for all general endowed scholarships (for all majors) as well as the following scholarship opportunities if you meet all of the eligibility requirements: Luckyday Success Scholarship, Newman Scholarship, Carrier Scholarship, Ole Miss Women's Council, Ole Miss First, School of Accountancy, School of Business, School of Engineering, School of Journalism, and the College of Liberal Arts. Students who wish to be considered for any need-based awards must also complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.gov
Letters of Recommendation Not required.

The University of Mississippi also offers the following special programs:

☒ Croft Institute for International Studies - Croft is the major in international studies. Croft prepares students for challenging careers in international affairs, government, business, education, and the not-for-profit sector. Croft students major in international studies, a selective, interdisciplinary program that offers small classes and centers on a mix of intensive foreign language training, the social sciences, and study abroad. Croft students choose both a regional and a thematic concentration and select their courses in individual advising sessions designed to create a program of study tailored to the student's particular academic interests. Students applying to the Croft Institute are strongly encouraged to apply to the Sally McDonnell Barksdale Honors College as well.

☒ Lott Leadership Institute - The program of the Lott Leadership Institute prepares students to assume positions of responsibility in the public sector in an increasingly complex world. It is built around the concept of civic globalism, which is defined as individual and collective actions designed to identify and address issues of public concern on a global scale. Civic globalism means an institutional commitment to public purposes and responsibilities intended to strengthen a democratic way of life in the rapidly changing 21st century.

☐ Pharmacy - Founded in 1908, the School of Pharmacy strives to be internationally recognized for leadership and innovation in education, research, the delivery of pharmaceutical care, and professional service. Its faculty is dedicated to being pacesetters in student-centered education and continuously assesses and refines the curricula to ensure excellence and currency. The School of Pharmacy offers the Doctor of Pharmacy as the entry-level practice degree and offers admission after completion of high school (Early Entry/Early Assurance) or traditionally after completion of the pre-pharmacy program (Regular Entry). Application Deadline- February 08, 2016
